

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

Ragging is strictly banned in Immaculate College of Education for Women. Ragging is banned by Supreme Court of India. In order to prevent such kind of activity in campus, an Anti-Ragging committee has been formed and brought into operation even before the start of I Year classes by the Principal.

Say No to Ragging

Ragging is neither a means of familiarization, nor an introduction with fresher's but a form of Psychopathic behavior. Ragging is a violation of Human Rights. Respect Humanitarian values. Ragging is a heinous crime, heavily punishable under law. Ragging may spoil your career forever.

Punitive measures for Ragging

Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Anti-Ragging committee of the college, the possible punishments for those found guilty of ragging shall be one or any combination of the following;

- Cancellation of admission
- Suspension from attending classes

- Debarring from any test/examination or any other evaluation process
- Collective punishment when the individual committing or abetting ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment.
